

2026 INTERNATIONAL OFFICER ELECTION
INTERNATIONAL UNION, UNITED AUTOMOBILE, AEROSPACE,
AND AGRICULTURAL IMPLEMENT
WORKERS OF AMERICA (UAW)

SUPPLEMENTAL CAMPAIGN FINANCE RULES

Pursuant to the Official Rules for the 2022 International Officer Election of the International Union, United Automobile, Aerospace, and Agricultural Implement Workers of America (UAW) (the “Election Rules”), the Election Rules remain in effect for future UAW International Officer elections unless and until modified by the Monitor, in consultation with the UAW. Election Rules at 3.

Accordingly, pursuant to Section 12-1 of the Election Rules and Article 10, Section 22 of the UAW Constitution as amended on July 28, 2022, the Monitor issues these Supplemental Campaign Finance Rules.

These Supplemental Campaign Finance Rules are intended to supplement the campaign finance provisions in the Election Rules, see Election Rules § 8, and shall apply to all funds raised for or used in connection with the 2026 International Officer Election.

Supplemental Campaign Finance Rule 1: Prohibition on Contributions from Non-UAW Members

Only UAW members and retirees in good standing may contribute anything of value to a Candidate’s campaign.

Supplemental Campaign Finance Rule 2: Limit on Contributions from UAW Members

The maximum amount that any member or retiree in good standing may contribute during any campaign cycle is $2,000.00 (two thousand dollars) per Candidate.

Supplemental Campaign Finance Rule 3: Disclosure Statements

To the extent any prospective Candidate for the 2026 Election begins collecting campaign contributions or making political expenditures before the issuance of the Official Rules for the 2026 Election, the prospective Candidate must track those contributions and expenditures on a Campaign Financial Disclosure Form, see Election

Rules § 8-8, for possible submission at a later date. Additional rules on campaign finance reporting requirements for the 2026 Election will be forthcoming.
